

FORGING LEADERSHIP: APPLYING BEST PRACTICES IN DRUG DEMAND REDUCTION

APRIL 2-3, 2012

Kovens Center, Florida International University, Miami, FL USA

CONFERENCE THEMES:

New and Emerging Trends in Drug Demand Reduction
Societal Impact of Drugs: Public Health, Safety and Human Rights
Applying Science for Effective Drug Demand Reduction in Prevention and Treatment
Meeting the Needs of Special Populations
Achieving Success Through Collaboration

SPONSORS:

Brasileiros Humanitários em Ação (BRAHA)
CELIN Bolivia
Centro de Información y Educación para la Prevención del
Abuso de Drogas (CEDRO)
Centros de Integración Juvenil, A.C.
CHIPRED (Red Chilena de Prevención de Drogas)
Drug Free Collier
Drug Prevention Network of the Americas (DPNA) / Red
Interamericana para la Prevención de las Drogas (RIPRED)
Drug Prevention Network of Canada
Florida International University
Informed Families/The Florida Family Partnership

Instituição Padre Haroldo, Brasil
RISE Life Management Services
SURGIR, Corporación Colombiana para la Prevención del
Alcoholismo y la Farmacodependencia
Urban League of Greater Miami, Inc.

SUPPORTERS:

Drug Free America Foundation, Inc.
International Task Force on Strategic Drug Policy
International Scientific and Medical Forum on Drug Abuse
Institute on Global Drug Policy
Bureau for International Narcotics & Law Enforcement Affairs,
Department of State, United States

To register please visit www.dpna.org